

Website Privacy Policy

This privacy policy sets out how Kerry Social Farming uses and protects any information that you give Kerry Social Farming when you use this website.

Kerry Social Farming is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

Kerry Social Farming may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes.

This policy is effective from 03/05/2018.

What we collect

We may collect the following information:

- name, job title, company or agency/organisation name.
- contact information including email address, phone number.
- other information relevant to your enquiry about social farming.

What we do with the information we gather

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons:

- As part of our funding programmes it is a requirement that we collect data on individuals using our service or participating in the initiative. However personal identifying information will not be passed on to any third party or any public agencies.
- Internal record keeping.
- To determine suitability for participation in Social Farming.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about webpage traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over other websites. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

Web Site Disclaimer

While every attempt is made to ensure fullness and accuracy of information on this web site, the information contained in these Web pages is, to the best of our knowledge, true and accurate at the time of publication, and is solely for information purposes. Kerry Social Farming accepts no liability for any loss or damage howsoever arising as a result of use or reliance on this information.

Controlling your personal information

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties.

You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the Data Protection Acts 1998 to 2018. If you would like a copy of the information held on you, please contact Evelyn O'Connell, Kerry social farming facilitator, West Main Street,

Cahirsiveen, Co.Kerry by post to the above address or by e-mail eoconnell@skdp.net

If you believe that any information, we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please write to or email us as soon as possible at the above address. We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.
